BY MEANS RAY.

The extra session of the legislature called by Governor Gardner for the purpose of ratifying the Susan B. Anthony amendment to the Federal constitution extending suffrage to women adopted the amendment without delay.

There were a total of only seven votes in both the Senate and House against the resolution.

Predictions that some might oppose the resolution were without the least foundation for no sooner was the question brought up in either branch than was it adopted. The House required 15 minutes and the Senate four.

One of the great surprises of the extra session was the continued fight against the League of Nations headed by Speaker Sam F. O'Fallon, of Holt County, and Representative Hackett, of Pettis county, both Republicans.

Their opposition came at a dinner given by the suffrage leaders and developed when a movement was started to send a message endorsing the plan of a League of Nations to President Wilson and asking that he speak in Missouri on his return to this country.

During the regular session of the Legislature the Republicans spent much time fighting the League of Nations.

Democratic leaders here state that for the Republicans to try and longer claim that the League of Nations is not a party issue, when they are opposing it as a party, is useless and the belief is stated that the next campaign will be made on such an issue.

The Democrats insist that Republicans should offer some plan of world peace, if they can't get behind the League covenant, or stop fighting what is offered.

Senator Selden P. Spencer is coming in for his share of criticism among the Republican members of the general assembly. They claim that it is somewhat difficult to tell where he stands on any of the great questions confronting the people of the nation. Another complaint against Senator Spencer is because of the appointment of a negro on the clerical force of the United States Senate. This complaint does not come alone from party members here out is being voiced by other clerks in the Senate who are of that party.

Baptist News and Notes.

Notwithstanding the fact that preparation for the Assembly reduced our attendance somewhat, last Sunday was a good day for our church. At the closing of the Sunday School it was apparent that the attendance was much above the average, but some had come in so late that they were not counted. Superintendent Tims is doing his work under difficulties this summer. Let us encourage him by coming regularly and on time.

The number present at the morning service and the very close attention and the deep interest were inspiring to the pastor.

Miss Bernice Bramhall, vice-president of the B. Y. P. U., led the evening worship so well that we sincerely wished that every member were present to receive the blessing that came to those who were there. Those who took active part did their work well.

There were several strangers at the different services. Let us be thoughtful to greet and welcome such.

All services adjourned for two weeks on account of the Assembly.

Annapolis News.

We had a fine rain Saturday night and Sunday morning and looks like we might get more. This is the first good rain we have had in six weeks and could stand another just like it.

P. G. Garrison, of Warren, Arkansas, was here June 30th investigating the murder of his son, O'Bryan Garrison, whose body was found lying on the west side of the Missouri Pacific railroad track, two miles north of Annapolis, on the morning of June 17th. Mr. Garrison says his son would have been 22 years old in September, that he was never known to have trouble with any one, and he is at a complete loss to understand why any one should want to murder him. The young man was never known to gamble or drink. He always had money and had been working in the ship yards in New Orleans for eight months at good wages. He was laid off May 25th and went home for two weeks, and then left for Little Rock, Arkansas, to hunt a job. It was just one week from the day the boy left home that news was received of his death.

Leellie Dunn of Deeloge visited his mother in Annapolis the past week. Alfred Loyd is digging a well for D.

Mrs. Reynolds' son-in-law and daughter from Chicago are visiting here and in Piedmont.

John T. Webb and several others spent the 4th on Black River fishing. The catch was small.

Mr. Rood came down from Sabula last week and finished up the concrete porch in front of John T. Webb's store that was started over a year ago. It is a good job.

The safe for the Annapolis bank will in all probability be used as a calaboose until a house is built that will hold it.

Ray Simpson of Black river, in Reynolds county, who has been in the navy the past four years, has received his discharge and came home last Sunday. He had but one furlough of eight days during the four years.

Mrs. John R. Harris has been very sick the past week, but is about well again now.

John Tucker of Pilot Knob visited relatives in Des Arc and Annapolis the last days of June. He walked from Des Arc to Annapolis June 28th, staid over Sunday with Squire Kitchell, and left on the local Monday morning for Pilot Knob. A blind family has been camped near Annapolis the past five days, singing for compensation.

I stopped off at Piedmont on the 4th. There was the biggest crowd I ever saw in Piedmont. They came to honor the brave soldier boys who offered their lives for their country. But there were some they did not meet. They are sleeping in graves in France and other places. We can never do too much for the soldier boys. We met with many old friends there—some we had not seen for several years. Among the visitors were Mrs. D. A. White, who formerly ran the Piedmont hotel, Mrs. W. W. Strother and "Pony" Pauline of Coldwater. I missed my old friend, Martin Warren, one of the best men in Wayne county; also Mr. Chilton of Greenwood Valley.

Several boys from Des Arc went to Piedmont in automobiles and on the train.

Rev. C. W. Calloway preached at the Baptist church here Sunday. He will preach for us the first Sunday in every month.

Miss Allie Fitz was over from Farmington for the 4th; also C. S. Fitz from Poplar Bluff.

Mr. E. W. Graves, Poplar Bluff, was here for a short time Saturday.

Interested in Film Productions to Be Made at Methodist Celebration at Columbus, O.

DR. JAMES E. CROWTHER AND D. W. GRIFFITH.

The support of the motion picture world as represented by D. W. Griffith, well known film producer, was assured the Methodist Centenary Celebration at a conference in Columbus, the celebration being represented by Dr. S. Earl Taylor of New York, Dr. J. E. Crowther of Seattle, Dr. Fred Fisher of New York and Dr. C. F. Reiser of New York.

Dr. Griffith, in addition to promising to make a film of all important features of the Centenary Celebration, strongly urged the use of motion pictures in the advancement of religious work. He spoke strongly of the possibilities of the motion pictures under proper supervision being made to carry a religious message further than any known form of communication.

Dr. S. Earl Taylor, director general of the Centenary Celebration, made the statement that "we want pictures that talk the universal language. I believe the message of peace and good will should be preached to the world through pictures."

"I am glad to know they are going to give motion pictures a practical demonstration at the Centenary Celebration," said Mr. Griffith. "The celebration will give the people in towns and villages a wonderful opportunity to visit the entire world by going no further than Columbus. There will be an extraordinary impression produced by seeing these villages of China, Japan and India, not peopled by real natives from foreign lands."

"I have been astounded beyond measure at the breadth, extent and scope of the entire scheme as it has been revealed to me by Dr. Taylor, Dr. Crowther, Dr. Reiser and others. I understand the Methodist Church has $140,000,000 and is going to celebrate its success with something more nearly resembling a world fair than anything else to which it can be compared. One would think that a great nation at least is behind the movement. Doubtless, something greater than the greatest nation is behind it—a reawakened ideal and faith inspired to bind up the wounds of a torn and outraged world."

Columbus Can Well Accommodate All Who Attend Methodist Celebration, Officials Say

NO CROWD which has been proposed for the Methodist Centenary Celebration will swamp Columbus, according to Mayor George J. Karb, who has received some inquiries from distant points regarding the ability of the Capital City to take care of the hundreds of thousands of Methodists coming from all over the United States for the Centenary Celebration, June 20 to July 12.

Mayor Karb says: "Columbus has always been equal to any situation. We are not going to fail the exposition crowds, no matter how many thousand there are. Tell them to come to Columbus town. We are ready with open hearts and open doors. Columbus can do it."

James T. Daniels, secretary of the Chamber of Commerce, says: "We can easily and satisfactorily accommodate three hundred thousand visitors." Organizing Secretary H. B. Dickson says: "Three hundred thousand my minimum estimate of attendance. Confident Columbus can take care of twice that number."

Collection of Indian Curios at the Methodist Centenary Celebration

WHAT has been pronounced the greatest private collection of Indian curios in America has been loaned to the Methodist Centenary Celebration at Columbus, O., by H.

W. Palm, an Indian trader of Ortonville, Minnesota. Mr. Palm is here shown with some of his interesting relics.

Indian exhibitions will have a considerable place in the Celebration. Pueblos will unconcernedly mold pottery before throngs of curious spectators, just as their grandfathers did before the white man invaded their lands. Navajos will weave rugs and St. Regis make baskets—all actually living in their native homes, be they pueblos or wigwams.

NO SEATS RESERVED

First Come, First Served, at Coliseum at Methodist Centenary

At a conference of Director General S. Earl Taylor, Dr. Fred B. Fisher, H. B. Dickson and other members of the Centenary Exposition staff, it was decided that there will be no seats reserved in the Coliseum for "The Wayfarer" pageant presentations at the Methodist Centenary Celebration, Columbus, O., June 20-July 13.

All seats will be available to spectators as soon as the doors of the Coliseum are opened each evening. "It will be a case of 'first come, first served,'" says Mr. Dickson. Season tickets to the exposition grounds admit the bearer once to the pageant in the Coliseum. Single admission fees at the gate require an additional fifty cents for the Coliseum evening feature.
